Video Life Stories of Migrants is the product of a collaboration between migrants living in Greece and Greek nationals. It consists of 20 short films which present the everyday reality in Greece in a way that combines the actually lived experience and the perceptions of both migrants and Greeks. After being trained to record life stories and observational documentary, 20 migrants and 20 Greeks working in pairs (a migrant and a Greek) filmed the life stories of 5 migrant groups (Egyptians in Thessaloniki, Albanians in Crete, Indians in Attica, Nigerians and Ukrainians in Athens). The film narratives are focused on four fundamental aspects of daily life: family, work, art and the idea of “here and there.”

Dr. Pavlos Kavouras is professor of the Faculty of Music Studies at the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. His areas of academic expertise are cultural anthropology and ethnomusicology. He holds an MA degree in Applied Urban Anthropology from City University of New York and a Ph.D in Cultural Anthropology from The New School for Social Research of New York. Among his various scholarly publications in English and in Greek are: Ghlendi and Xenitia: The Poetics of Exile in Rural Greece, Trickster and Cain: A Musical Allegory, Folklore and Tradition: Issues on the Re-presentation of Music and Dance.