27. Founding Program of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam

The struggle of our people and the whole nation has led to the creation of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam. This front is the expression of the will of the people of South Vietnam to gain independence and self-determination. It is a potent force for the realization of our national aspirations and the achievement of our national goals.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam is the embodiment of the struggle of our people for freedom, independence, and sovereignty. It is a powerful tool for the realization of our national aspirations and the achievement of our national goals.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam is the embodiment of the struggle of our people for freedom, independence, and sovereignty. It is a powerful tool for the realization of our national aspirations and the achievement of our national goals.

I. The Foundation of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam was founded in January 1961. It was established to represent the interests of the people of South Vietnam and to fight for their freedom and independence.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam was founded in January 1961. It was established to represent the interests of the people of South Vietnam and to fight for their freedom and independence.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam was founded in January 1961. It was established to represent the interests of the people of South Vietnam and to fight for their freedom and independence.

II. The Role of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam plays a crucial role in the struggle for freedom and independence of the people of South Vietnam. It serves as a unifying force for the people of South Vietnam and as a source of strength and support for their struggle.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam plays a crucial role in the struggle for freedom and independence of the people of South Vietnam. It serves as a unifying force for the people of South Vietnam and as a source of strength and support for their struggle.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam plays a crucial role in the struggle for freedom and independence of the people of South Vietnam. It serves as a unifying force for the people of South Vietnam and as a source of strength and support for their struggle.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam was founded in January 1961. It was established to represent the interests of the people of South Vietnam and to fight for their freedom and independence.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam was founded in January 1961. It was established to represent the interests of the people of South Vietnam and to fight for their freedom and independence.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam was founded in January 1961. It was established to represent the interests of the people of South Vietnam and to fight for their freedom and independence.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam was founded in January 1961. It was established to represent the interests of the people of South Vietnam and to fight for their freedom and independence.

The National Liberation Front of South Vietnam was founded in January 1961. It was established to represent the interests of the people of South Vietnam and to fight for their freedom and independence.
28. "The Political and Military Line of The Revolution Against America"

By General Vo Nguyen Giap

Our Party’s

Vietnam and America