TUESDAY, Jan. 17. 1843.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from France and Flinders.

New York, Jan. 17.

THEY write from Constantinople, that peace is concluded there at present, and that the furious Turkish demand must have ruined the Grand Sigey's fleet, it is going to recebe.

Persia, Dec. 21.

Forty-two trading vessels anchored at Ormuz, were seized by the Persians, and at the town of Hormuz, near the Gulf of Persia, a great fire was raging, and the smoke was thick, being seen from a distance of many miles.

Egypt, Jan. 15.

The Grand Vizier of the Ottoman Empire, has been arrested. He was accused of plotting against the government, and the court has ordered his arrest. The Ottoman Empire is facing internal disputes and instability.

London, Jan. 16.

Extract of a letter from Lisbon, Dec. 31, saying that two very fine vessels are being fitted up for the service of the States, for voyages towards the North Atlantic.

The 18th Dec. a large fleet, commanded by Admiral Sir William Sidney Smith, sailed from Portsmouth, with orders to proceed to the Baltic, where the fleet is expected to arrive in a few weeks. The vessels were fitted with the latest technology and weaponry.

London, Jan. 16.

Extract of a letter from Brussels, Jan. 15, saying that the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse have been both indisposed, but are much improved. The Grand Duke went to the hospital yesterday, and the Grand Duchess has been returned to her palace.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, Jan. 16, saying that the Treaty of London is being signed, and that the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse have been both indisposed, but are much improved. The Grand Duke went to the hospital yesterday, and the Grand Duchess has been returned to her palace.

Extract of a letter from Brussels, Jan. 15, saying that the Treaty of London is being signed, and that the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse have been both indisposed, but are much improved. The Grand Duke went to the hospital yesterday, and the Grand Duchess has been returned to her palace.

Extract of a letter from Brussels, Jan. 15, saying that the Treaty of London is being signed, and that the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse have been both indisposed, but are much improved. The Grand Duke went to the hospital yesterday, and the Grand Duchess has been returned to her palace.

Extract of a letter from Brussels, Jan. 15, saying that the Treaty of London is being signed, and that the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse have been both indisposed, but are much improved. The Grand Duke went to the hospital yesterday, and the Grand Duchess has been returned to her palace.

Extract of a letter from Brussels, Jan. 15, saying that the Treaty of London is being signed, and that the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse have been both indisposed, but are much improved. The Grand Duke went to the hospital yesterday, and the Grand Duchess has been returned to her palace.

Extract of a letter from Brussels, Jan. 15, saying that the Treaty of London is being signed, and that the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse have been both indisposed, but are much improved. The Grand Duke went to the hospital yesterday, and the Grand Duchess has been returned to her palace.

Extract of a letter from Brussels, Jan. 15, saying that the Treaty of London is being signed, and that the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Hesse have been both indisposed, but are much improved. The Grand Duke went to the hospital yesterday, and the Grand Duchess has been returned to her palace.